

CGI recruits Cory Riordan as Executive Director for Tremont West Development Corp.

News Release Date: January 9, 2012

CGI is pleased to announce that Cory Riordan has joined Tremont West Development Corporation (www.tremontwest.org) as Executive Director. This role reports to the Board of Directors. Cory will be responsible for the overall operations of TWDC and the continued growth of the vibrant Tremont district.

Cory previously served as the Executive Director of St. Clair Superior Development Corporation. His role evolved from active staff participant to an effective community leader. He has created innovative youth programs to respond to youth violence, addressed abandoned property issues, brought a stronger sense of branding to the Asia Community businesses and provided strong leadership that allowed for the expansion of SCSDC. Cory holds a B.A. from Ohio University and a Masters of Urban Planning from Cleveland State University.

About Tremont West Development Corporation: TWDC is the core of Cleveland's Tremont District. For the past 30 years, Tremont West Development Corporation, a non-profit organization, has been working with residents, business owners and other community partners including the City of Cleveland to create a dynamic community. Tremont is considered a premier neighborhood of the City of Cleveland. The history of its culture and infrastructure and the possibilities of its future are all important to the work that TWDC conducts every day.
